§ 101-47.308 Special disposal provisions.*§ 101-47.308-1 Power transmission lines.

(a) Pursuant and subject to the provisions of section 13(d) of the Surplus Property Act of 1944 (50 U.S.C. App. 1622(d)), which is continued in effect by section 602(a) of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, any State or political subdivision thereof, or any State or Government agency or instrumentality may certify to the disposal agency that a surplus power transmission line and the right-of-way acquired for its construction is needful for or adaptable to the requirements of a public or cooperative power project. Disposal agencies shall notify such State entities and Government agencies of the availability of such property in accordance with § 101-47.303-2.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this subpart, whenever a State or political subdivision thereof, or a State or Government agency or instrumentality certifies that such property is needful for or adaptable to the requirements of a public or cooperative power project, the property may be sold for such utilization at the fair market value thereof.

(c) In the event a sale cannot be accomplished by reason of the price to be charged or otherwise and the certification is not withdrawn, the disposal agency shall report the facts involved to the Administrator of General Services, for a determination by him as to the further action to be taken to dispose of the property.

(d) Any power transmission line and right-of-way not disposed of pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be disposed of in accordance with other applicable provisions of this subpart, including, if appropriate, reclassification by the disposal agency.

§ 101-47.308-2 Property for public airports.

(a) Pursuant and subject to the provisions of section 13(g) of the Surplus Property Act of 1944 (49 U.S.C. 47151), airport property may be conveyed or disposed of to a State, political subdivision, municipality, or tax-supported institution for a public airport. Airport property is any surplus real property including improvements and personal property located thereon as a part of the operating unit (exclusive of property the highest and best use of which is determined by the Administrator of General Services to be industrial and which shall be so classified for disposal without regard to the provisions of this section) which, in the determination of the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) is essential, suitable, or desirable for the development, improvement, operation, or maintenance of a public airport, as defined in the Federal Airport Act, as amended (49 U.S.C. 1101), or reasonably necessary to fulfill the immediate and foreseeable future requirements of the grantee for the development, improvement, operation, or maintenance of a public airport, including property needed to develop sources of revenue from nonaviation businesses at a public airport.

(b) The disposal agency shall notify eligible public agencies, in accordance with the provisions of § 101-47.303-2, that property which may be disposed of for use as a public airport under the Act of 1944, as amended, has been determined to be surplus. There shall be transmitted with the copy of each such notice when sent to the proper regional office of the Federal Aviation Administration, § 101-47.303-2(d), a copy of the holding agency's Report of Excess Real Property (Standard Form 118, with accompanying schedules).
